

Copyright: Publications and Proceedings of the House of Assembly Newfoundland and Labrador

Publications, web content and audio/visual proceedings (webcasts) of the House of Assembly of Newfoundland and Labrador and its committees and Management Commission, regardless of format, are protected by copyright.

As representative of the House of Assembly of Newfoundland and Labrador, the Speaker of the House of Assembly grants permission to excerpt and cite the publications or web content or to rebroadcast the audio visual proceedings of the Assembly for use in educational institutions and for other purposes, such as private study, academic papers, research, criticism, review or journalistic fair comment.

With respect to audio/video records, broadcasters, including webcasters, may make use of recorded excerpts of the proceedings in news or public affairs programs or websites or otherwise electronically post excerpts for the purposes of fair and accurate reports of proceedings. The following restrictions apply:

1. Use of publications, web content or portions thereof for commercial purpose or financial gain requires the express written approval of the Speaker of the House of Assembly;
2. Audio/visual program material may not be used in advertising for political parties during election or by-election campaigns, effective from the issuance of the election writ;
3. Audio/visual program material may not be altered or modified, except for length, or used in any form of undignified association.
4. Use or broadcast of these proceedings for commercial purpose or financial gain requires the express written approval of the Speaker of the House of Assembly.
5. Webcasts are provided for informational purposes only. The printed version of Hansard remains the official record of the proceedings.

Breach of these restrictions may be considered contempt of the House of Assembly.

By using, citing, viewing, installing, rebroadcasting or otherwise electronically posting publications or audio/visual proceedings, the user agrees to the foregoing terms and conditions. If you do not agree to the foregoing terms, you do not have the authority to use publications or rebroadcast or otherwise electronically post these items.

All questions concerning these terms, and permissions sought, should be directed to the Clerk of the House of Assembly, P.O. Box 8700, St. John's, NL A1B 4J6. ClerkHOA@gov.nl.ca