BACKGROUND

On December 7, 2016, the Management Commission accepted recommendations 31-38 of the 2016 Members Compensation Review Committee (MCRC) Report with respect to severance for Members of the House of Assembly (CM 2016-062 to CM 2016-069 refer). On March 15, 2017, the Management Commission accepted recommendation 44 of the 2016 MCRC Report that the new severance provisions shall not apply to Members of the House of Assembly who were first-elected before November 30, 2015 (CM 2017-025 refers).

The attached policy approved by the Management Commission is a consolidation of severance provisions for Members of the House of Assembly. The provisions in effect for MHAs who were first-elected prior to November 30, 2015 are included under Section 4.0. The provisions applicable to those first-elected on or after November 30, 2015 are included in Section 5.0.

DIRECTIVE

Pursuant to subparagraph 20(6)(b)(ii) of the House of Assembly Accountability, Integrity and Administration Act, the Commission approved the Severance Policy for Members of the House of Assembly.

Sandra Barnes
Clerk of the House of Assembly
