

2023-2026

ACTIVITY PLAN

Order of Newfoundland and Labrador

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

As Chair of the Order of Newfoundland and Labrador Advisory Council, I am pleased to present the 2023 - 2026 Activity Plan. This plan covers the period from April 1, 2023 to March 31, 2026, and was drafted in accordance with the requirements of the Transparency and Accountability Act.

The Order of Newfoundland and Labrador Advisory Council is established under the Order of Newfoundland and Labrador Act and its membership is appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. The Advisory Council has considered the strategic directions of government during the preparation of this Activity Plan.

The Advisory Council is accountable for the preparation of this plan and the achievement of its objective.

Sincerely,

Krista Quinlan

Clerk of the Executive Council and Chair of the Order of Newfoundland and Labrador Advisory Council

OVERVIEW

The Order of Newfoundland and Labrador is the highest honour of the Province. The object of the Order is to recognize individuals who have demonstrated excellence and achievement in any field of endeavour benefiting in an outstanding manner Newfoundland and Labrador and its residents. The first investiture took place in 2004.

Any Canadian citizen who is a present or former long-term resident of Newfoundland and Labrador is eligible for nomination to the Order. Public officials, such as judges, members of the Senate, House of Commons, House of Assembly or legislative assembly of a province, members of municipal, town, regional councils or local service district committees, and members of an assembly or local government established under a land claims agreement or of a band council are exempted from nomination. Posthumous nominations are not accepted. Organizations, groups, or couples may not be nominated; the Order is for individuals only.

An individual who is not a Canadian citizen or current or former long-term resident of the province, but who has demonstrated excellence in their field of endeavour, and who has benefited the province and its residents in an outstanding manner, may be nominated as an honorary member.

The Order of Newfoundland and Labrador Advisory Council is established as per section 12 of the Order of Newfoundland and Labrador Act, consisting of the following four individuals, each of whom is a member by virtue of his or her office: the Clerk of the Executive Council; the Chancellor of Memorial University of Newfoundland; the Chief Justice of Newfoundland and Labrador or, where he or she is unable to serve on the council for any reason, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Newfoundland and Labrador, and the Speaker of the House of Assembly; two individuals who are members of the Order who shall be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, each for a term of three years; and not more than two individuals appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, each for a term of three years. The Clerk of the Executive Council is the chairperson of the council. Current membership is composed of:

- Krista Quinlan, Clerk of the Executive Council
- Hon. Deborah Fry, Chief Justice of Newfoundland and Labrador
- Hon. Derek Bennett, Speaker of the House of Assembly
- Earl Ludlow, Chancellor of Memorial University of Newfoundland
- Jim Burton
- Sterling Peyton
- William Mahoney
- Lori Anne Companion

The Deputy Clerk of the Executive Council serves as secretary to the Advisory Council.

The Advisory Council meets at least once per year pursuant to section 13 of the Order of Newfoundland and Labrador Act or more frequently as required.

OBJECTIVE

The Order of Newfoundland and Labrador Advisory Council has a very specific mandate to accept and consider nominations of persons eligible for the Order of Newfoundland and Labrador and make recommendations to the Chancellor of the Order, the Lieutenant-Governor of Newfoundland and Labrador. As such, the Advisory Council will report annually upon its activity toward the objective detailed below.
