CHAIRPERSON'S MESSAGE

As Chair of the Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board I am pleased to submit the Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board's 2012-13 Annual Activity Report in accordance with the Transparency and Accountability Act. The report covers the period from April 1, 2012 – March 31, 2013.

Pursuant to the Regional Appeal Boards Establishment Order, the Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board has the authority to hear appeals in the central region of the province. The board's mandate, as defined in section 42(1) of the Urban and Rural Planning Act, 2000, is to hear appeals brought forward by individuals dissatisfied with a municipality's or another provincial authority's decision regarding land use and development. The board also hears appeals resulting from an order issued under section 404 of the Municipalities Act, 1999.

The board's actions contributed to one of government's strategic direction outcomes, 'strengthened local government,' as articulated in the Department of Municipal Affairs' 2011-2014 Strategic Plan. This report documents the board's performance in the second year of our 2011-14 Activity Plan. The board is accountable for the results reported herein. I look forward to carrying out our planned activities in 2013-14.

Respectfully submitted,

Samuel Gibbons, Chair
Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board

1.0 BOARD OVERVIEW

The Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board (the 'board') is established pursuant to the Urban and Rural Planning Act, 2000. Its board members are appointed by the Minister of Municipal Affairs. The board hears appeals related to land use and development issues that arise from decisions made by municipalities or a provincial government authority. Issues which may be appealed to the board include:

- a decision made under Development Regulations;
- a decision to issue an Order under Section 102 of the Urban and Rural Planning Act, 2000;
- a decision to issue an Order under Section 404 of the Municipalities Act, 1999;
- a decision to refuse to issue a permit under Section 194 of the Municipalities Act, 1999;
- a decision made under Interim Development Regulations;
- a decision under a Local Area Plan, Protected Area Plan, Protected Road Zoning Regulations or Highway Sign Regulations;
- a decision made under Occupancy and Maintenance Regulations; and
- decisions made under any other Act or Regulations where specifically designated.

Appeals may be made by a person or an association of persons.

The board considers and determines an appeal in accordance with all relevant legislation, including municipal by-laws. Section 42 of the Urban and Rural Planning Act, 2000 outlines procedures with respect to appeals. The board can confirm, reverse or vary a municipal council's or other authority's decision and may impose conditions. The board may direct the municipal council or the relevant authority to carry out its decision.

The Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board consists of five members, including the chairperson. A quorum consists of a chairperson and two members. Current members of the Board are:

Name	Community of Residence
Samuel Gibbons, Chairperson	Trinity, Bonavista Bay
Norman Austin	Lewisporte
Shawn Feener	Grand Falls-Windsor
Wesley Harris	Hermitage
Fred Parsons	Grand Falls-Windsor

The Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board does not have an office or staff, nor does it manage its own financial statements. Administrative and technical support is provided by the Department of Municipal Affairs. Board members are paid honoraria as well as related travel expenses from the budget of the Department of Municipal Affairs.

2.0 MANDATE

The Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board is mandated by section 42(1) of the Urban and Rural Planning Act, 2000 to hear appeals related to:

- (a) an application to undertake a development;
- (b) a revocation of an approval or a permit to undertake a development;
- (c) the issuance of a stop work order; and
- (d) a decision permitted under the Urban and Rural Planning Act, 2000 or another Act to be appealed to the board.

The board's geographic area of jurisdiction is prescribed in section 2(b) of the Regional Appeal Boards Establishment Order, under the authority of section 40 of the Urban and Rural Planning Act, 2000:

"...Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board, having jurisdiction over Central Newfoundland and more particularly described as all that area of the Island of Newfoundland situated east of a line drawn from Hampton to Rose Blanche excluding both of those communities and west of a line drawn from Port Blandford to Terrenceville and excluding both of those communities."

To view the Regional Appeal Boards Establishment Order in its entirety, please see Appendix A.

The Urban and Rural Planning Act, 2000 may be accessed through the House of Assembly website at www.assembly.nl.ca/legislation.

3.0 PRIMARY CLIENTS

The Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board's primary clients are the following groups within the Central Region:

- residents who feel aggrieved by a council's or another authority's decision related to land use or development;
- businesses who feel aggrieved by a council's or another authority's decision related to land use or development;
- municipal councils; and
- Provincial Government departments.

4.0 VISION

The vision of the Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board is:

The public, municipalities and other authorities have access to an effective process to hear appeals of decisions filed with the board.

5.0 MISSION

The board has decided not to develop a separate mission statement, as the mission of the Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board is described in the board's mandate.

6.0 ACTIVITIES

Issue: Land Use and Development Appeals

The Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board contributes to government's strategic direction outcome of 'strengthened local government' through the timely adjudication of appeals related to land use and development, and the provision of feedback to municipal councils. The board's adjudication of appeals enables municipal councils and other government authorities to gain a better understanding of the application of land use and development legislation, and a more complete understanding of the appeal process.

The board has a single focused mandate. Therefore, the board decided not to develop three year goals in its 2011-14 Activity Plan. Instead, it developed a single annual objective with accompanying measures and indicators to be reported on in each of the three years of its Activity Plan. The board fully met its objective in 2012-13, as detailed below.

Objective: By March 31, 2013, the Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board will have heard appeals and have rendered decisions in a timely fashion.

Measure 1: Heard appeals

Indicators	Progress and Accomplishments
Number of appeals heard	7
Number of appeal hearing days	3

Measure 2: Rendered decisions in a timely fashion

Indicators	Progress and Accomplishments
Number of written decisions rendered within 21 days from date of hearing	All of the board's decisions were rendered in writing within 21 days of the date of hearing.

7.0 OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES AHEAD

The opportunity for the board is to make a positive contribution to municipal governance through the hearing of appeals and rendering decisions in compliance with relevant legislation.

The challenge is to continue to hear appeals in as timely a manner as possible once they are ready for adjudication by the board. The board also intends to maintain the board's high standards of rendering decisions in a timely fashion.

8.0 FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board is not required to provide audited financial statements. The board does not manage its own funds or financial statements. Board members are paid honoraria as well as related travel expenses from the budget of the Department of Municipal Affairs. The following is a summary of the board's 2012-13 expenditures:

Expenditure Item	Expenditure Amount
Honoraria	$1,675
Travel	$1,158
TOTAL	$2,833
