Message from the Minister

As Minister for Intergovernmental and Aboriginal Affairs, I am pleased to present the 2010-2011 Annual Report for the Intergovernmental Affairs Secretariat, which details its activities from April 1, 2010 through March 31, 2011. I would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge the contribution of my predecessor, Dave Denine, who served as Minister for Intergovernmental Affairs during the reporting period.

As part of government's October 2011 restructuring, the Intergovernmental Affairs Secretariat was amalgamated with Aboriginal Affairs, creating a new Intergovernmental and Aboriginal Affairs Secretariat. In the near future the new Secretariat will prepare and table in the House of Assembly, a strategic plan for the 2011-14 period to appropriately reflect the recent realignment of services. This year was the final year in a three year reporting period. The Secretariat has accomplished a great deal and a tremendous amount of work has been done towards reaching set goals.

The Secretariat focused on the creation, coordination and review of policy affecting the Province's interests in intergovernmental matters. The Secretariat has a legislated responsibility to be a party to the negotiation and signing of all intergovernmental agreements. The Secretariat acts as the primary point of contact for the federal government where no equivalent provincial department exists, and it leads the Province's efforts to promote and diversify operations at 5 Wing Goose Bay, 9 Wing Gander and CFS St. John's.

This past year the Secretariat participated in a number of intergovernmental meetings with governments from across Canada and the United States, as well as with representatives from countries in Europe. The Secretariat played lead and partnership roles to advance the Province's interests on a range of intergovernmental issues. This year there was a focus on cooperation with other jurisdictions on energy and trade issues. For each meeting, the Secretariat was responsible for providing policy support and advice to the Premier and/or relevant Ministers. In addition to supporting the Premier, the Secretariat continued to offer strategic advice and logistical assistance to Ministers in relation to meetings and negotiations with the federal government and the provinces and territories, and with representatives of international governments.

The Secretariat will continue to focus on the challenges and opportunities and will work diligently to reach our goals through our activities and represent the best interests of the Province at every opportunity. My signature below is indicative of my accountability for the actual results reported.

1 Overview of the Intergovernmental Affairs Secretariat

The Intergovernmental Affairs Secretariat (“the Secretariat”) leads the formulation of government’s intergovernmental policies and strategies and monitors and coordinates interdepartmental initiatives to ensure their consistent application.

The Secretariat coordinates intergovernmental activity and recommends strategic approaches to federal/provincial/territorial relations, including the negotiation of federal/provincial/territorial funding arrangements in consultation with relevant departments. The Secretariat also develops provincial policy in areas that do not fall under the responsibility of other departments, including defence and foreign affairs.

On defence matters, the Secretariat coordinates discussion with military officials and local representatives related to planning issues and provincial interests. In recent years, defence activity has focused on flight training by allied forces at 5 Wing Goose Bay and advocating for improved search and rescue response times.

International activities also fall within the responsibility of the Secretariat. The Secretariat is responsible for the coordination of policies, programs and activities of the Government of Newfoundland and Labrador in relation to other sovereign governments.

The Secretariat supports the Premier’s participation in meetings of the Council of the Federation, the Council of Atlantic Premiers, the Conference of New England Governors and Eastern Canadian Premiers, First Ministers, and other Premiers’ meetings as necessary.

The vision, mission and mandate as approved in the 2011-2014 Activity Plan is stated below but this Plan currently is under revision in light of a recent amalgamation and will be re-tabled in the near future. Please note that the vision and mission for the 2006-2011 period is reported on in section 3 of this report.

Vision

The Secretariat envisions a strong, self-reliant Newfoundland and Labrador advancing its best interests with governments in Canada and abroad.

Mission

By March 31, 2017, the Secretariat will have advanced Newfoundland and Labrador’s best interests with governments in Canada and abroad.

Mandate

The mandate of the Secretariat is to:

- coordinate all policies, programs and activities of the government of the province and its agencies in relation to a sovereign government and its agencies;
- continually review all policies, programs and activities of the government of the province and its agencies in relation to a sovereign government and its agencies, all intergovernmental agreements, and all relevant legislation pertaining to those policies, programs, activities and agreements;
- be a party to the negotiation of all proposed intergovernmental agreements;

- promote the military diversification and long-term operation of 5 Wing Goose Bay;
- act as the point of entry for the federal government where no analogous provincial department exists; and
- take necessary action to initiate or maintain intergovernmental co-operation between the Province and a sovereign government.

The authorizing statute of the Minister for Intergovernmental Affairs and the Secretariat is the Intergovernmental Affairs Act. The Act is available online: <http://assembly.nl.ca/Legislation/sr/statutes/i13.htm>.

Lines of Business

The Secretariat's lines of business are derived from its mandate and are those distinct products and services the Secretariat produces to meet the needs of its primary clients.

Intergovernmental policy formulation and advice: The Secretariat is responsible for monitoring and analyzing intergovernmental dimensions of constitutional, social, fiscal, economic and resource policy matters in order to formulate and provide policy advice on the development of government's intergovernmental strategy and agenda.

Promotion of the Province's interests: The Secretariat builds relationships with other governments and international entities to advance the province's interests. The Secretariat advocates for Newfoundland and Labrador at bilateral, multilateral, regional and international intergovernmental meetings and conferences to present and promote Newfoundland and Labrador's positions on matters of importance to this province. The Secretariat further promotes the province's interests by assisting departments in their participation in intergovernmental meetings and negotiations, and their negotiation of intergovernmental agreements.

Support and coordination: The Secretariat coordinates and provides support for interdepartmental initiatives that have intergovernmental implications.

Organization and Staffing

Number of Employees

As of March 31, 2011, 13 people, 7 males and 6 females (not including the offices of the Minister or the Provincial Representative in Ottawa) staff the Secretariat. They work on the 7th floor, East Block, Confederation Building, St. John's. The Secretariat is directed by the Deputy Minister and the Assistant Deputy Minister. There are two divisions:

Social and Economic Policy: Policy formulation derives from an ongoing review and analysis of all intergovernmental issues relating to social and economic matters. These issues include education; immigration; labour market programs; health; social services; women's policy; housing; justice; internal and international trade; industry and economic development; transportation/infrastructure; emergency preparedness; protocol; trade; foreign affairs; innovation; research and development; Aboriginal affairs; child, youth and family policy; and national defence. Its regular staff complement is a director and three analysts.

Resource and Fiscal Policy: Policy formulation derives from an ongoing review and analysis of all intergovernmental issues relating to constitutional issues, fiscal and resource policy matters. These issues include federal presence; fisheries and oceans; agriculture; environment; tourism, culture and recreation; parks; forestry; energy; mining; wildlife; government services; crown lands and fiscal transfers and other fiscal arrangements. It is also responsible for the identification and analysis of the Province's intergovernmental priorities. Its regular staff complement is a director and three analysts.

The Secretariat's regular staff complement also includes a communications specialist, an information management specialist, an administrative assistant to the Deputy Minister and an administrative assistant to the Assistant Deputy Minister.

From time to time the Secretariat also hires student interns with relevant education or offers work-terms to help with analysis and to provide students with relevant work experience.

Normally, the Office of the Provincial Representative in Ottawa is funded through the Secretariat, but not part of the Secretariat's organizational structure and reports directly to the Office of the Premier. However, the Ottawa Representative position was vacant during 2010-11 and as announced on January 27, 2010, the Intergovernmental Affairs Secretariat will maintain responsibility for the office until the position in the Ottawa Office is filled.

As listed in the Estimates ending in fiscal year 2011, the Secretariat, including the Minister's Office and Ottawa Office, has a budget of $ 2,484,100.

Shared Commitments

The Secretariat's work in coordinating intergovernmental activity means that it works with other departments in nearly all areas. For example, shared commitments are central to each of the Secretariat's four 2008-2011 strategic directions and its three 2011-2014 strategic directions. To promote 5 Wing Goose Bay, the Secretariat works with provincial departments such as Labrador and Aboriginal Affairs, Environment and Conservation and Business. To assess developments in the federal government's presence in Newfoundland and Labrador, provincial departments provide the Secretariat with valuable information about developments in federal staffing and the need for federal services. In preparations for intergovernmental meetings and in its relationships within the federation, the Secretariat works with all government departments to understand their issues, analyse, assist and develop policy positions.

The Secretariat has also been engaged in various horizontal initiatives and committees including Air Access, Arctic Opportunities, Climate Change and Energy Efficiency, Immigration and Multiculturalism, Labour Market Development, Northern Strategic Partnership and the Innu Land Claim Steering Committee.

While nearly all commitments of the Secretariat are shared, particular examples are illustrated below where relevant.

2 Key Accomplishments and Priorities

In 2010-2011, the Secretariat undertook partnership and lead roles to advance the Province's interests in a range of intergovernmental meetings, both multilaterally and bilaterally. Key accomplishments and priorities focused on support to the Premier, Minister for Intergovernmental Affairs and other Ministers in their meetings and negotiations with the federal government and the provinces and territories.

The Secretariat worked in collaboration with departments and agencies to advance Newfoundland and Labrador's priorities with the federal government, either directly with federal Ministers, government departments and agencies or in multilateral meetings. The following is a non-exhaustive list of the Secretariat's activities on key priorities.

Intergovernmental Agreements

In 2010-2011, the Province entered into 76 new or renewed agreements with the federal government to provide a range of funding and services to the people of Newfoundland and Labrador, and nine additional agreements with provincial, territorial or international governments. The Intergovernmental Affairs Act provides that the Minister for Intergovernmental Affairs or his or her designate shall be a party to the negotiations of each intergovernmental agreement and that each shall, before executed, be submitted to the Minister and shall be signed by the Minister or his or her designate. Lieutenant Governor in Council authority is required to sign intergovernmental agreements.

The Secretariat's mandate is to: ensure that each agreement is consistent with the Province's intergovernmental policies and priorities; provide advice and information to the Minister, Premier and Cabinet about agreements with other jurisdictions; and, support provincial departments in achieving their mandates through intergovernmental agreements. A key priority for the Secretariat is to ensure that agreements between sovereign governments contain appropriate language, support the principles of partnership and respect the constitutional division of powers. The Secretariat may provide support and advice to departments at a number of stages, from the formulation through the negotiation to the finalization of these agreements. The depth of the Secretariat's involvement varies depending on factors such as the department's need for support and the priority of the agreement under intergovernmental policy, but in all cases the Secretariat works with the relevant department on the penultimate draft as authority is sought to enter into the agreement.

Canada – European Union Trade

Newfoundland and Labrador is participating in negotiations between Canada and the European Union towards a Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement (CETA). The Secretariat, in collaboration with the lead entity, the Department of Innovation, Trade and Rural Development, is working with federal and provincial-territorial negotiators to ensure the interests of the Province are reflected in the final agreement.

Further to this, Premiers agreed during the 2010 Council of the Federation Meeting to develop a framework for provincial-territorial involvement in international negotiations to be used in discussions with the federal government. The Secretariat has been working with the Department of Innovation, Trade and Rural Development on this issue.

International Fisheries Issues

Newfoundland and Labrador continues to support the federal government in its ongoing World Trade Organization (WTO) challenge against the European Union (EU) import ban on seal and seal products. The Secretariat is working with the lead entity, the Department of Fisheries and Aquaculture, to support Canada's action through the WTO to address this violation of international trade agreements.

Canada should manage fish stocks that straddle Canada's Exclusive Economic Zone and Newfoundland and Labrador has encouraged the federal government to advance this principle in international organizations such as the Northwest Atlantic Fisheries Organization. Custodial management is the optimal approach to effectively managing our fisheries resources for the long-term benefit of Newfoundlanders and Labradorians. Therefore, the Secretariat actively monitors this issue and collaborates with the Department of Fisheries and Aquaculture to protect and advance our interests in this area where appropriate.

The Secretariat has also supported other provincial departments and advocated for improved search and rescue response times.

Multilateral Meetings

The Council of Atlantic Premiers

Premiers established the Council of Atlantic Premiers in 2000 to strengthen the economic competitiveness of the Atlantic provinces, improve the quality and cost-effectiveness of public services and promote the interests of the Atlantic provinces on national issues.

On November 28 and 29, 2010 Newfoundland and Labrador attended the 18th session of the Council in Pictou, Nova Scotia. The discussions at this meeting were focused on regional co-operation, employment insurance, Canada-European Union Comprehensive Economic Trade Agreement, voluntary carbon offsets, immigration, research and development, post-secondary education, the Atlantic Energy Gateway, health care, federal transfers, federal presence, and minimum wage and labour standards.

In consultation with many departments across Government, the Secretariat participated in planning meetings and conference calls and prepared briefing materials for the Premier in advance of the meeting. During the event, the Secretariat provided on-site support and strategic advice and participated in preparation of the communiqué and follow-up correspondence to the Prime Minister.

For more information about the Council of Atlantic Premiers, you may visit the website at www.cap-cpma.ca.

The Council of the Federation

Founded in 2003, the Council of the Federation is the council of all the Premiers of the Canadian provinces and territories. The Province's commitment to this Council is covered under intergovernmental meetings under section four, issue #3 of this report. It held its annual summer meeting in Winnipeg, Manitoba from August 4-6, 2010. The Secretariat, in consultation and collaboration with many departments across Government, provided strategic advice and support to the Premier during the meetings.

For more information about the Council of the Federation, including the communiqués issued by the Council following these meetings, visit the website at www.councilofthefederation.ca.

Premiers' Meeting with Leaders of the National Aboriginal Organizations

Premiers met with National Aboriginal Organization leaders in Churchill, Manitoba on August 4, 2010. Issues discussed were education and skills training, economic development, violence against aboriginal women, and strategies for engaging the federal government. The Secretariat worked closely with the Department of Labrador and Aboriginal Affairs to provide strategic advice, relevant materials and on-site support to the Premier.

Federal/Provincial/Territorial and Provincial/Territorial Meetings

In 2010-2011, the Secretariat contributed to numerous intergovernmental meetings. The Premier, Ministers and department officials received timely analysis and information about the political, administrative, fiscal and economic status as well as policy developments and positions of the federal, provincial and territorial governments. The Secretariat provided advice to ensure consistency in the Province's positions and assistance to departments to negotiate and conclude intergovernmental agreements and prepare appropriate submissions to inform the Cabinet decision-making process.

The Conference of New England Governors-Eastern Canadian Premiers

The Conference of New England Governors and Eastern Canadian Premiers was established in 1973 to expand economic ties among the states and provinces; foster exchanges on energy matters; advocate for environmental issues and sustainable development; and coordinate numerous policies and programs in such areas as transportation, forest management, tourism, small-scale agriculture, and fisheries.

The 34th Annual Conference was held in Lenox, Massachusetts from July 11-13, 2010. The theme of the conference was "Promoting Economic Growth through Clean Energy in New England and Eastern Canada." The discussion largely focused on regional energy and environment issues and included discussions about the Canada-US relationship, clean transportation solutions and the expansion of reciprocal government procurement. A total of five resolutions were agreed upon at this meeting, dealing with: energy; greenhouse gas emissions from transportation sources; energy efficiency; government procurement; and, affirming support for the international emergency measures group.

The Secretariat participated in the development of the meeting agenda in collaboration with Eastern Canadian and New England counterparts, and coordinated the preparation of policy advice to the Premier. The Secretariat also provided logistical support and strategic advice to the Premier during the meeting.

For more information about the Conference of New England Governors and Eastern Canadian Premiers, and to review the individual resolutions, you may visit the following websites: www.negc.org/premiers.html or www.cap-cpma.ca/.

South Eastern United States – Canadian Provinces Alliance

In November 2007, seven Canadian provinces and six US states founded the South Eastern United States – Canadian Provinces Alliance; a business-focused forum intended to build and further develop the trade relationships between the jurisdictions. The Alliance was formally created with the signing of the Joint Declaration Establishing the South Eastern United States – Canadian Provinces Alliance. The Alliance comprises Newfoundland and Labrador, Manitoba, Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, and from the US, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Tennessee, Mississippi and Alabama. While the Secretariat has been active in the start-up of this organization and continues to participate in its development, the Department of Innovation Trade and Rural Development is the lead.

The Secretariat continues to provide support as required in preparations for Alliance events.

Visiting International Dignitaries

Every year, many international dignitaries visit the province and meet with the Premier, the Minister for Intergovernmental Affairs, other Cabinet Ministers, and various government officials. While the Office of Protocol (Executive Council) advises on matters of protocol and organizes state and ceremonial events, the Secretariat supports the Premier and the Minister for Intergovernmental Affairs by undertaking research and providing strategic advice for such meetings. In 2010-11, the Secretariat was involved in the Province's hosting of delegations from 6 foreign countries.

Pursuit of this goal across the initiatives of government departments and policy areas	In collaboration with the Department of Natural Resources, the Department of Fisheries and Aquaculture and the Department of Justice, the Secretariat has analyzed a wide range of issues related to the effective control that the province has over resources in the offshore. This analysis identifies and clarifies the opportunities to advance jurisdictional ownership. Particular attention was given to ensuring that the principles and provisions of the 1985 and 2005 Atlantic Accords are maintained. The Secretariat also continues to monitor potential boundary issues and possible threats to the province's effective control over offshore resources.

The Secretariat was actively involved with the Departments of Natural Resources, Fisheries and Aquaculture, Justice, Environment and Conservation and Tourism, Culture and Recreation to ensure that a coherent and consistent approach was taken. These activities included: participation in the negotiation of intergovernmental agreements; the provision of policy advice; and involvement with committees dealing with intergovernmental issues. These activities ensure a consistent approach is taken in relations with the federal government on this issue.

The Secretariat has been carefully monitoring the ongoing process underway by the Department of Fisheries and Oceans to develop Marine Protected Areas to ensure that provincial jurisdictional ownership and control is protected and maximized where possible.

The Secretariat is also following the ongoing effort by the Governments of Newfoundland and Labrador, Nova Scotia and Canada to amend the Atlantic Accord Implementation Acts to improve the Occupational Health and Safety regime in the Newfoundland and Labrador and Nova Scotia offshore areas. The Secretariat works with the lead provincial department, Natural Resources regarding regulatory issues and Government Services regarding safety, on this issue.

The Secretariat continues to monitor the federal government's ongoing scientific research to support Canada's claim to the continental shelf under the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea. The Secretariat is engaged in various issues related to the boundaries of Newfoundland and Labrador's offshore area and has engaged the Department of Natural Resources on the analysis of this material.

Work undertaken in 2009-2010 and 2010-2011 incorporates measures of a plan completed through analysis done in 2008-2009.

4 Activities in 2010-2011

The Intergovernmental Affairs Secretariat Activity Plan is the Secretariat's guide to its activities for the coming years. The following activities undertaken in 2010-2011 supported the achievement of these strategic directions and are outlined in the 2008-2011 Activity Plan.

Issue #1: 5 Wing Goose Bay

The Secretariat acts as lead provincial agency for matters related to defence; 5 Wing Goose Bay is a priority issue. Secretariat officials work closely with all provincial departments, federal officials in various departments, and the local community (e.g. the Town of Happy Valley-Goose Bay, the Goose Bay Citizen's Coalition and other groups and organizations as appropriate) to advance the future viability of military presence and training.

Furthermore, the province has maintained its advocacy for the establishment of an Unstaffed Aerial Vehicle Squadron, a federal government commitment to 5 Wing that has been outstanding since 2006.

Goal: By 2011, the Secretariat will have worked with the federal government, the community and other provincial departments and agencies to promote the military diversification and long-term operation of 5 Wing Goose Bay, including attracting foreign military flight and other military training.

Objective: By 2011, the Secretariat will have continued to hold the federal government accountable for its commitments to station a new Rapid Reaction Army Battalion and Unstaffed Aerial Vehicle Squadron at 5 Wing. IGAS (Intergovernmental Affairs Secretariat) will have worked with local stakeholders to promote related diversification opportunities at the base.

Indicators	Activities in 2010-2011
Continued to monitor and analyse developments in federal defence policy	The Secretariat provided advice as necessitated by defence related developments to advise the Minister in his advocacy efforts with the federal government and representatives from other countries whose militaries could use 5 Wing as a training location. These materials included analysis of development related to the Arctic that could bring about a potential role for 5 Wing.
Continued advocacy to the federal government through	In 2010-11, the Minister made representations to Minister of National Defence Peter MacKay regarding 5 Wing, met with 5

meetings and representation	Wing officials, and raised 5 Wing Goose Bay as a possible location for foreign military training in meetings with various North Atlantic Treaty Organization countries including three of those that once conducted full time operations.
Continued information sharing among the community and responsible federal and provincial government departments and agencies. In particular, as the federal government has advised that a new Rapid Reaction Army Battalion will not be stationed at 5 Wing Goose Bay, the Secretariat will aim to identify a comparable operational requirement	The Secretariat engaged on a weekly basis with 5 Wing staff in order to facilitate an ongoing exchange of information between the province, 5 Wing and, through the base's Community Liaison Officer, community stakeholders. Also, the Secretariat served as a liaison for all matters involving 5 Wing, the Department of National Defence and provincial government departments in order to ensure clear lines of communication between these entities. The Secretariat provided regular briefings and strategic advice to relevant Ministers and Deputy Ministers, to ensure consistency in provincial policy and positions. Also the Secretariat maintained regular communication with the Department of Business in order to exchange information on possible future uses for 5 Wing that may become available through a private sector initiative.

Issue #2: Federal Presence

The federal government's presence throughout Newfoundland and Labrador is important to the province's economy and its place in Canada. Over the last two decades, challenges have emerged. During the reductions of the 1990s, federal employment in this province declined at a rate markedly higher than the national average. While our proportion of federal employment compared to the rest of Canada has remained stable since this time, the province's share of federal executives remains disproportionately low. This leads to fewer decision makers on the ground in Newfoundland and Labrador. The Secretariat is responsible for advancing the province's interests in this matter with the federal government. This activity issue assists the Secretariat in fulfilling its strategic direction to achieve equitable treatment of the province within Canada by ensuring equity of federal government positions and decision-making within Newfoundland and Labrador.

Goal: By 2011, the Secretariat will have worked to promote increased federal presence throughout Newfoundland and Labrador.

Objective: By 2011, the Secretariat will have worked to increase and promote the level of federal presence throughout Newfoundland and Labrador.

Consequently, in response the Minister followed up with Minister Shea on Newfoundland and Labrador's position on federal presence and the location of national offices. The Minister contacted Federal Minister of Human Resources and Skills Development, Diane Finley, to express a general concern and request additional clarification regarding the regional restructuring of Service Canada.

Issue #3: Intergovernmental Fora

The Intergovernmental Affairs Secretariat is responsible for supporting the Premier's and Minister's participation in such intergovernmental meetings as the Council of the Federation, Council of Atlantic Premiers, the Conference of New England Governors and Eastern Canadian Premiers, and First Ministers' Meetings. This involves the preparation of advice, advancing the Province's interests through these Councils and Conferences, and working with colleagues across the country and throughout New England to implement Premiers' and Governors' direction. This activity issue assists the Secretariat in fulfilling its strategic direction to achieve equitable treatment of Newfoundland and Labrador within the federation by ensuring the Premier and the Minister are able to use these conferences and meetings to articulate the Province's positions and promote its interests.

Goal: By 2011, the Secretariat will have consistently supported the promotion and advancement of Newfoundland and Labrador's interests within such fora as the Council of the Federation, the Council of Atlantic Premiers, the Conference of New England Governors and Eastern Canadian Premiers and at First Ministers Meetings.

Objective: By 2011, the Secretariat, through its participation in the steering committees of these organizations, will have worked to strengthen these fora to enhance the Premier and Minister's ability to further its interests through these fora.

Issue #4: Jurisdictional Ownership and Effective Control over the Offshore

In Blueprint 2007, the Government of Newfoundland and Labrador committed to continue to seek jurisdictional ownership and effective control of petroleum and other resources in waters adjacent to Newfoundland and Labrador. The Secretariat has been tasked with overseeing and implementing this commitment. This activity issue assists the Secretariat in fulfilling its strategic direction to achieve equitable treatment of the Province within Canada by seeking equity in the treatment of the Province's offshore interests, be that oil and gas, the fishery or environmental issues. Ownership and control is important to the Newfoundland and Labrador economy and the Province's broader interests.

Goal: By 2011, the Secretariat will have worked to advance the Province's jurisdictional ownership and effective control of petroleum and other resources in the waters adjacent to Newfoundland and Labrador.

Indicators	Activities in 2010-2011
Continued to consult with relevant ministers and departments regarding the advances, challenges and status of Newfoundland and Labrador’s attempt to broaden and deepen its jurisdiction over offshore resources;	The Secretariat worked with the Departments of Natural Resources, Justice, Fisheries and Aquaculture, and others, to ensure that the wide variety of issues affecting our offshore are advanced in a coherent and coordinated manner that enhances our control over the offshore and protects the integrity of the Atlantic Accords. Some examples of activities are noted below. The Premier met with Minister Flaherty twice concerning the federal government's equity stake and the Net Profits Interests in Hibernia and once with the Prime Minister. Continue to encourage other departments and agencies as well as other relevant stakeholders in order to enhance and expand effective control over offshore resources and as they develop relevant policies.

Natural Resources, in consultation with the Secretariat and Justice, provided advice that further legal work and research be done toward establishment of an administrative boundary with respect to oil and gas regulation in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. Direction was received to proceed with this work.

The Secretariat staff gave a presentation on the subject of the Large Ocean Management Area boundary dispute at a meeting of the Canada – Newfoundland and Labrador Committee on Oceans Management.

The Secretariat is working with the Departments of Fisheries and Aquaculture and Natural Resources to monitor developments with the Gulf of St. Lawrence Integrated Large Ocean Management Area.

The Secretariat discussed with officials from other jurisdictions the amendments made to the Canadian Environmental Assessment Act that creates potential duplication of environmental assessment in the offshore. Deputy Ministers of Environment and Conservation and the Secretariat met with the President of Canadian Environmental Assessment Agency, where this issue was discussed.

5 Opportunities and Challenges in 2011-2012

On October 28, 2011 Premier Dunderdale announced the amalgamating of the Intergovernmental Affairs Secretariat with Aboriginal Affairs, creating a new Intergovernmental and Aboriginal Affairs Secretariat. In the near future the new Secretariat will prepare and table in the House of Assembly a strategic plan for the 2011-14 period to appropriately reflect the recent realignment of services.

The Canadian intergovernmental environment is continually transforming as leadership and priorities change. In response to such changes, the Secretariat facilitates the province's positioning on issues of specific and common concern to achieve the vision of a province which is recognized as making an important contribution to a strong and united Canada which is treated equitably within the federation.

Relations with the Federal Government

In 2011-2012 the Government of Newfoundland and Labrador will continue to strive for the goal of fairness within the Canadian federation and will seek to ensure that the province is treated equitably within national programs. The challenges faced in addressing these issues, as noted above, are significant but it is necessary to confront them if the Canadian federation is to work in a fair and respectful manner. The Secretariat will also work with departments and agencies to ensure that ongoing collaborative federal-provincial efforts continue to be productive, such as the federal-provincial joint environmental assessment of the Lower Churchill Hydroelectric Generation Project and the harmonized environmental assessment of the Labrador-Island Transmission Link Project, which offers one the best economic opportunities for our province.

With the expiry of the Canada Health Transfer and the Canada Social Transfer in 2014, the federal government may seek to place conditions or require accountability for these transfers, impeding a jurisdiction's flexibility to develop appropriate policies and infringing upon areas of provincial jurisdiction. Furthermore, conditions respecting accountability and reporting requirements represent a duplication of accountability mechanisms already in place in provinces and territories.

The Secretariat will also call upon the federal government to increase its presence in the province by locating more executive positions, with policy decision-making powers, to Newfoundland and Labrador and, where it is appropriate, to establish headquarters of federal departments and/or agencies. Such an increase in federal presence would provide value to all Canadians and have a direct and important impact upon this province. The Secretariat will provide strategic advice and support to the Premier, the Minister for Intergovernmental Affairs and other Ministers and their departments in these endeavours.

Obligations to Intergovernmental Meetings

Intergovernmental meetings provide opportunities to advance the province's key priorities on regional, national and international stages. In 2011-2012, the Government of Newfoundland and Labrador will continue to work through organizations such as the Council of the Federation, Conference of New England Governors and Eastern Canadian Premiers and the Council of Atlantic Premiers. The Intergovernmental and Aboriginal Affairs Secretariat will support the Premier and the Minister for Intergovernmental and Aboriginal Affairs as they participate in and meet the challenges in discharging their obligations to these organizations. The Secretariat will develop, with other jurisdictions, the agenda and common positions; develop and implement logistical arrangements related to the province's participation; give strategic advice in consultation with other provincial departments; and provide strategic advice and on-site support during meetings. Following such meetings, the Secretariat will collaborate with provincial departments and agencies and other jurisdictions to implement Premiers' directions and report on their progress.

National Defence

Federal policy directions, including the Canada First Defence Strategy and Canada's Northern Strategy, provide possible opportunities for the province to pursue with respect to national defence. In May 2011 Canada signed a treaty with the other seven nations of the Arctic Council (Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway, Russia, Sweden, and the US) to divide the north into Search and Rescue regions and co-ordinate emergency response efforts between Council members. The Secretariat will continue to monitor events stemming from this development in an effort to determine whether this could position 5 Wing Goose Bay, given its location, as a possible base for an increased northern search and rescue presence.

The Government of Newfoundland and Labrador will continue to hold the federal government accountable for its commitments to station an Unstaffed Aerial Vehicle Squadron at 5 Wing that was first promised by the federal government in 2006 and reiterated by the federal government several times since. Furthermore, in his April 25, 2011 letter to the Premier, Prime Minister Harper promised that the federal government will continue to move ahead with its commitment to increase operations at 5 Wing.

The Secretariat will also work with the Department of National Defence and local stakeholders to promote related diversification opportunities at the base.

Intergovernmental Agreements

The Secretariat will continue to carry out its legislated responsibilities pertaining to the negotiation and signing of intergovernmental agreements. It will continue to seek opportunities for improving agreements, especially in light of recent federal policy changes regarding transfer payments.

The Secretariat will work with its federal counterpart (the Privy Council Office), as well as provincial and federal departments to ensure that agreements with the other governments, particularly the federal government, are respectful of Newfoundland and Labrador as a member of the Canadian federation.
