Section 29 of the Royal Newfoundland Constabulary Act, 1992 provides for the appointment of a panel of 12 lawyers to serve the Commission as adjudicators with one being named as Chief Adjudicator. As of March 31, 2016, the membership of the panel was as follows:

As per Section 28 of the Act, the Commissioner will forward matters to the Chief Adjudicator when a public hearing is deemed necessary. The Chief Adjudicator will hear the matter or assign it to another adjudicator. Hearings are considered public; however, if it is considered by the adjudicator that any of the reasons outlined in Section 32 of the Act apply, all or part of the hearing may be held in private.

It states that hearings are to be conducted without delay giving full opportunity to all parties to present evidence and make representations. Primary Clients

The primary clients for the Panel of Adjudicators are the parties to a proceeding before an adjudicator. This includes the Commissioner (who shall have carriage of the matter), the complainant, the named officer, the Chief of Police (when the appeal is by an officer who is the subject of a complaint), or any other person who satisfies the adjudicator that he or she has a substantial interest in the complaint.

Activity

Issue – Inquiring into Complaints

An adjudicator has the powers of a commissioner appointed under the Public Inquiries Act, 2006 when holding a hearing. These powers require that hearings be held without delay giving full opportunity to all parties to present evidence and make representations in person or through counsel. At times, there are matters which are particularly complex and take time to conclude. This is necessary to ensure a thorough review of facts and fairness to all parties.

The focus of the Royal Newfoundland Constabulary Public Complaints Commission (RNCPC) Panel of Adjudicators will remain consistent over the next year. The RNCPC Panel of Adjudicators will report on this objective, measure and indicators again in 2016-17.

Objective: Upon referral of a matter, the Adjudicator will have held public hearings to inquire into all matters referred to him or her and give full opportunity for the presentation of evidence.

Measure: Hearings held

Indicators	Results
Number of hearings held as required by the Royal Newfoundland Constabulary Act, 1992 .	There were no hearings required as per the Act .

Financial Report

The Panel of Adjudicators does not have a separate budget. Expenses are captured under the budget of the Royal Newfoundland Constabulary Public Complaints Commission. For fiscal year 2015-16, no expenditures were required for the Panel of Adjudicators.
